

AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP

Emotional Culture Deck Leaders Workshop

This workshop is designed to bring your leaders together and help them create a better connection and understanding between themselves and with their people, nudging them to develop and grow.

By using The Emotional Culture Deck, we'll nudge your leaders to:

- Explore and learn about the role emotion plays in culture, leadership and high-performing teams
- Become more empathetic and conscious of their team culture
- Work together to define how they want to lead their people and the environment they want to create

In the workshop, we will define:

- How each leader wants to feel and not feel at work
- How we collectively want our people to feel and not feel within our business units
- The actions and behaviours that will support the culture we want to foster

- Walk away with a draft Human-centred Leadership Canvas, describing how we want to collectively lead our people going forward.
